SPEAKERS

WELCOME - ND FIRST LADY

Kathryn Burgum

(Narrated by Jenni FitzPatrick)

To everyone attending Marketplace for Kids, Congratulations for possessing the courage, creativity, and passion to commit yourself to learning more about entrepreneurship and the role you can play in making your communities stronger through the Marketplace for Kids Education Day. Your curiosity to explore, build, and collaborate within this program shows that you are well on your way to becoming yet another innovative entrepreneur and leader for North Dakota and beyond. As you continue your journey of entrepreneurship – remember that you possess unlimited potential to make a difference in the lives of others. Be curious and courageous to think outside the box, create work worth doing, and have fun!

Kathryn Burgum

WELCOME:

Director - DSU Heritage Found.

Ty Orton

In this role since 2015 when DSU Heritage Foundation was formed, Orton strengthens relationships and raises funds to support DSU's high-quality, accessible programs and education. Orton serves on the President's Cabinet and Advisory Council. Orton began his career in 2002 at McCook Community College. Orton earned a Bachelor of Education from Rocky Mountain College in Billings, Mont. Over six years, Orton has led efforts in raising over $40 million in support for DSU students. The DSUHF has over 115 endowments providing $1.1 million in scholarships annually to DSU students.

NORTH Dakota | Governor Doug Burgum
Be Legendary.™

Welcome to Marketplace for Kids and Education Days!

In 1995, Marketplace for Kids hosted the very first Education Day. Since then, tens of thousands of students, educators and parents have worked with the organization to encourage and inspire entrepreneurship and innovation in youth. By helping students develop creative thinking and problem-solving skills, Marketplace for Kids helps build a bigger, brighter future for our communities and our economy. Given the challenges, innovations, and opportunities that await future generations of North Dakotans, critical thinking and continuous learning is - and will remain - key to individual success and the continued advancement of our great state. Marketplace for Kids projects, programs and regional Education Days would not be possible without the generous support of volunteers, businesses and organizations. Lt. Gov. Sanford and First Lady Kathryn join me in recognizing the commitment of so many to instill the entrepreneurial spirit in young people. Thank you for exploring your creativity with the purpose and power to change your life and improve the lives of others. Have a great day at Marketplace for Kids!

With gratitude,

Doug Burgum

NATIONAL ANTHEM

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light, what so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming? Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight, o'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming? And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there. O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!
