WELCOME

Native American Anthem & Music: Lake Region Drum Group & Spirit Lake Dancers

The name Lake Region comes from our forefathers. The lake region drum group was formed in the 70's and traveled all over Indian country participating in powwow's. We were the first drum group to do a live recording with Canyon records at the blue building here in Fort Totten. We currently still have a few of those original singers. As one big family we are honoring what our dad's and grandpa's formed in the 1970s. We perform all over North Dakota every year. The Lake Region Drum Group singers are Duane Jackson Sr, Victor Jackson Sr, Joe Jackson, Derrick Jackson Sr, Victor Jackson Jr, Kristopher White Sr, Kyle White, Brandon Jackson, and Joseph Gourd.

The Spirit Lake Dancers consist of Caelen Lohnes – a champion Fancy Dancer, Greyson Delorme – a champion Grass Dancer, Kori Jean Owlboy Jackson – a Fancy Shawl Dancer, and Barb Jackson – a champion Jingle Dress Dancer and they will be performing the Pre-Opening Rally Entertainment.

Featured Speaker: Farin Liggett

Farin Liggett was born and raised in the Spirit Lake/Devils Lake community. He graduated from Devils Lake High School in 2010, then went to pursue my degree in Financing at Dakota College of Bottineau in 2010 before having a change of career. He went on to graduate from Lake Region State College in 2014 & Mayville State University in 2016 with degrees in Fitness & Wellness. Farin started his sneaker business “Liggett Footwear”, November of 2023 selling sneakers in the community. Farin has been married for over a year now and has three going on four children.
